

David Cotterrell: Unicorn Development

Venue: Unicorn Theatre, London

Curators: Tony Graham, Keith Williams

Date: 7th December 2005

The new 13m Unicorn Theatre, the first ever purpose built professional theatre for children in central London, included installations by two leading contemporary artists - David Cotterrell and Martin Richman. The Unicorn, designed by Keith Williams Architects, situated behind City Hall on the south bank, has become a new cultural flagship international centre of excellence, providing opportunity, excitement and first hand experience of live theatre to over 100,000 children a year.

View from the stairwell Credit: David Cotterrell (2005)

View from the stairwell Credit: David Cotterrell (2005)

Walking on the sky Credit: David Cotterrell (2005)

The new Keith Williams Architects designed building (2009)