Awarding Body: Art in Sacred Spaces

Date Awarded: 31st March 2000

A residency was funded to run parallel to the development of new work for the London-wide art programme, Art in Sacred Spaces.

The residency supported engagement with the children and teachers of Rushmore Primary school in the development of related workshops and projects exploring issues raised by the commission, Defying Dog. Projects relating to interactivity, non-linear narratives and varying attention-spans were developed and explored through the period.
