

David Cotterrell: Breturn

Venue: Kabinet Muz

Curators: David Cotterrell

Date: 16th June 2017

Co-exhibitors:

Lewis Sherlock, Rose Butler, Sara Bjornsdottir, Sukie Smith, Sean Dower, Luke Pendrell

As a pilot (in the hope of greater things to come), Kabinet Mz is hosted a weekend of cultural imports from the sorry state of Britain.

Variably conceived as A Love Letter to Europe and A festival of Love and Hope, The organisers have settled on an eclectic list of extraordinary artists and performers to trailblaze a path for future collaboration. United through the beginnings of their names, the cities of Brno and Brighton have sought to show solidarity over division and champion love over hate.

BreTurn welcomed Artists who have stepped out of their comfort zones in order to Find new languages, challenge assumptions or simply to learn new things.

NASA and Music, art and war, film, photography, new media, interactive installations joined with Kabinet Mz as Prodigal children, uneasy bedfellows and welcome companions.

Producers: Standard Island (Tomas Mensik, Katerina Kelarova); Academic Partner: FAVU

Venue: Kabinet Muz; Event Host: Ivory Rodriguez

Sean Dower performing, 'Drums and Light!!!' at Breturn (2017)

Detail of Exhibition Poster (2022)

Lewis Sherlock performing with Mirror I (2022)