

David Cotterrell: The Saltley Geyser - 07.09.23 - 10.09.23

Date: 7th September 2023

Totally Thames artistic commission for 2023 is the extraordinary Saltley Geyser by the installation artist David Cotterrell. Located in the Royal Docks,

As one of the key events for the London-wide Thames Festival cultural program, this represents a dramatic return for one of Cotterrell's first public projects. 25 years after its original installation (in a small park in Birmingham), it will be witnessed again in East London's Royal Albert Docks. It will be viewable from the IFS Cloud Cable Car, the dockside near Canning Town and the streets and nearby buildings around the new City Hall.

Dates and Timings:

Thursday 7th: 1pm, 3pm 5pm and every 15 mins between 6.15pm and 8.00pm. Friday 8th: 1pm, 3pm, 5pm, 7pm. Saturday 9th and Sunday 10th: Every 15 mins between 12.00 and 7.00.
Location:

27 Western Gateway, London, E16 1FA

Further Information:

For additional information and press materials please contact the Thames Festival Trust, email the Totally Thames programme manager or follow links via social media.

Original Installation of Saltley Geyser Credit: © David Cotterrell (1998)